The Canal Bill Reported Favorably Without Amendment.

The Hepburn Proposition for an American Isthmian Waterway Saved From Committee Burial by the Vote of Senator McBride-Victory for Morgan and Defeat for Hanna

The Senate Committee on Inter-Oceanic Canals yesterday, by a majority vote, decided to report favorably and without amendment, the Hepburn Nicaragua Canal bill, providing for the construction of a waterway between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. This result was effected after three hours' deliberation and was brought about by the vote of Senator Mc-Bride of Oregon, who voted with the Dem. ocrats in favor of an American isthmian waterway and against the forces headed by Senator Hanna.

Senator Morgan, chairman of the committee, immediately reported the bill to the Senate and it was placed on the cai-

Senator Morgan was during the day the recipient of many congratulations on his success in bringing the bill out of com-mittee. The friends of the measure will rush it to a vote in the Senate, and ex-press themselves as confident of its early passage. The action of Senator McBride in voting with the Democrats is regarded as a direct thrust at Senator Hanna and

LICENSES OF PHARMACISTS.

Bill Authorizing the Examination Homeopathic Applicants.

The fact was discovered some month ago that there was no legal way to license homeopathic pharmacists in the District of Columbia under existing laws, though they had made the required deposit and were willing to submit to examination

To obviate the omission in the license laws of the District Commissioner Wight suggested the introduction of a bill in Con-gress the passage of which should give the Commissioners the authority to license homeopathic pharmacists as well as the of of the allopathic school. Following up the suggestion of Mr. Wight, a bill was pre-pared, introduced in the Senate, and referred to the Commissioners for considera ion and report. The Attorney for the District in submitting an opinion on the declared it to be in proper form and advised its passage.

Dr. William C. Woodward, the Health Officer, in reporting his views on the sub-ject, said that so far as he knew the Com-missioners of Pharmacy of the District, as

In accordance with these facts Dr. Wo daward recommended to the Commissioners that the Hill be sent to the Senate Committee on 'he District of Columbia with a favorable report. Dr. Woodward, however, further suggested that the bill be referred to the Commissioners of Pharmacy of the District for an expression of opinion before final action abbuild be taken.

The Commissioners of Pharmacy, after offering a few verbal amendments, calculated to improve the wording of the measure, recommended that its passage by sought by the Commissioners of the Dis-

he Jeffries-Corbett Fight Causes

Renewed Interest. NEW YORK, May 14.-There is a chance for several important heavy weight fights to be arranged in the near future. Champlon Jeffries has announced through his manager, William A. Brady, that he will take on Corbett, Sharkey, Fitzsimmons McCoy, Ruhlin, and Maher, first come first served. Jeffries says he will fight Corbett again a week from next Monday before any club and bet him $10,000 to $5,000 that he can duplicate the trick of last Friday

The champion also declares that if Fitz simmons defeats Ruhlin he will make a match with the Cornishman on the same terms exacted by Fitzsimmons when he all sorts of propositions. Not fifteen min-utes after Jeffries had been declared win-ner last Friday night, the suggestion was made that a twenty-five-round fight be-tween Corbett and Kid McCoy would prove an attraction. McCoy has a match on hand with Tom Sharkey, which will prevent a battle with Corbett for some Jeffrier has agreed to take Corbett on again in the near future, but if such a meeting should be an impossibility, then the sports would like to see Corbett tackle his old and bitter rival. Bob Fitzsimmons, provided, of course, the latter disposes of than one speaker, and the reason of it Gus Ruhlin next month. A meeting be-tween Corbett and Fitzsimmons this sum-mer would be of particular interest under existing conditions. In his present form Corbett, the experts say, would not be any easy mark for Fitzsimmons, who is not considered to be the pugilist he was when he won out at Carson.

There is still another fight mapped out for Corbett-a mix-up with Tom Sharkey When they met at the Lenox Athletic Clu more than a year ago Corbett was away ou of form, and was whipped when his second jumped into the ring in the ninth round But as he is today, Corbett might be bette able to take care of himself in front of the aggressive sailor. It is argued that if it took Jeffries twenty-three rounds to stop Corbett it might take Shurkey longer, and possibly Jim might be able to stay the limit in which event he would run an excelent chance of securing a victory on points

RUIN WROUGHT BY FIRE

The Washington Hydraulic Brick Company's Plant Destroyed.

Flames-Machinery Badly Damaged -Twelve Freight Cars of the Pennsylvania Road Burned-Loss Placed nt Between $50,000 and $75,000.

Fire broke out shortly after 10 o'clock last night in the brick yards of the Washington Hydraulic Brick Company, located in Alexandria County, Va., about half a mile south of the Long Bridge. A loss amounting to thousands of dollars resulted, much property, including sheds and the whole plant of the brick company, togethat present organized, are not prepared to er with a dozen freight cars of the Penn at present organized, are not prepared to examine applicants for registration as homeopathic pharmacists in accordance with the tenets of homeopathic pharmacists were given to druggists generally.

In accordance with these facts Dr. Wod-large examine the second of the fire. It returned when the location of the blaze It returned when the location of the blaze was determined.

It was about 10 o'clock when the fire, the origin of which is unknown, was discovered. Persons in the vicinity of the brick yards gave the alarm, but no organized effort to stem the progress of the flames could be made for some time. The buildings used by the brick company, frame structures, burned with great rapidity, the stable, a substantial building built of brick, alone escaping destruction. From the building where the fire origi-nated, near the centre of the burned area, the flames spread to other buildings, and within a short time almost the entire plant of the brick company was ablaze. A large crowd, including residents of the city, attracted by the glare of the confiagration, and those residing in the vicinity of the yard, had gathered. Efforts were made to check the progress of the dames, but it was soon found that the lack of proper water facilities and the absence of engines gave the fire every advantage. All that could be done was to save what property was not in the direct path of the flames, and to this end many willing hands were directed. A quantity of straw, used for the purpose of making bricks, added fuel to the flames, which burned for more than two hours without interruption.

Unions were received and obligated.

After the meeting it was stated that a letter had been received by Milford Spohn from Henry W. Steinbiss, Secretary of the National Building Trades Council, stating that the national body will refuse to recognize the organization which meets weekly at Costello's Hall as a legitimate building trades council.

In order to force a settlement of the trouble among the local building trades it is understood that action will be taken by the Central Labor Union to refuse to admit or recognize representatives from any union affiliated with the building trades organization referred to, which meets at Costello's Hall.

A fraternal delegate representing the trades council organized last week 3t Typographical Temple will be recognized by the union.

It was stated that a committee was apositively and the sheds there was a stock of bricks, and this flames had gained great headway.

No accurate estimate of the losses to either railroad company or to the brick company was obtainable last night, although it was placed by some at between $50,000 and $75,000. Officials of the brick company stated that they should have to make an examination before an accurate estimate of the damage could be made. There is no explanation as to how the de structive blaze originated, ubjects Discussed by the Northens Citizens' Association.

SCHOOLS AND BOULEVARD

The Northeast Washington Citizens' As sociation met last night at Northeast Temple, with Evan H. Tucker, the President, in the chair. A wide range of topics were discussed, chief among which were the public schools and the proposed avenue through the Mall.

President Tucker, reporting for the com-mittee on proposed legislation, spoke of the report of the Baltimore and Ohio viaduct bill to the Senate, stating that the committee of the Senate had adopted the met the champion—so per cent of the purse to Jeffries, win or lose. Fitzsim-inons on the other hand, says he will fight Jeffries, winner take all.

The rejuvenation of Corbett has caused the purpose of the property of the amendments which the association had plained that the association committee had worked with the committee from the Eckington association to induce Congress to run the tracks farther east and move the "Y" farther north. But Mr. Tucker stated that they had been convinced that the route and plans proposed in the bill were the most practicable and had given up in favor of the present plan.

In discussing the school question, the fact developed that the Northeast section than one speaker, and the reason of it was attributed to not having a representa-tive on the school board. Accordingly, on motion of B. L. Edwards, it was decided that the committee on education should be instructed to call on the Commissioners and urge the appointment of a member of the new school board from Northeast the new school board from Northeast Washington.

The subject of the proposed avenue through the Mall to connect the Capitol with Memorial Bridge elicited long dis-cussion. It was called forth by the fol-lowing resolution presented by W. G.

"Resolved, That this association is un-alterably opposed to the desecration of the Mall by converting a large portion of its area into an avenue, and that the Com mittee on Proposed Legislation is hereby directed to oppose any legislation pro-viding for the construction of an avenue running east and west through the Mail." In the discussion of the question it was shown that there were plenty of ap-proaches to Memorial Bridge without the desecration of the Mall, and that it would be wrong to occupy so large a portion of the only large reservation downtown for the purpose indicated. The avenue, however, had its champions, and these noble defended the proposition that the pro-posed improvement would be of great benefit to the Capital City. But after long argument the resolution was put to vote and carried by a majority of one.

The meeting then adjourned to the second Monday evening in December.
